

Statistical Programmer Job Summary

Stat One, LLC is looking to hire Statistical/SAS Programmers for our office located in Research Triangle Park area in North Carolina. We are a CRO supporting clinical trials for pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and medical device companies. We provide statistical consulting, programming and data management services to our clients. Our goal is to provide quality services in a timely and efficient manner.

Statistical Programmer Responsibilities are:

- Program and validate analysis data sets.
- Program and validate patient profiles, tables, listings and figures.
- Review and comprehend clinical trial documents such as protocols.
- Assist with database testing and validation as requested.
- Perform Quality Control (QC) review of statistical output as directed.

Job Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in biostatistics, statistics, mathematics, or other related scientific fields
- SAS Programming Knowledge
- Strong Attention to Detail
- Excellent Communication skills
- Other programming languages a plus

Please send resume to info@statonellc.com.